Course Description:

Intermediate Korean language is the low-intermediate Korean language course designed for those who have taken Elementary Korean language or had basic knowledge in Korean language. Emphasis is placed on the fundamentals of listening, speaking, reading, and writing. In addition, students will be exposed to everyday life contexts (language, culture, etc.) likely to be encountered in contemporary Korean society. By the end of the course, students will be able to understand and perform daily conversations, read and comprehend written texts dealing with personal and social events, and compose simple sentences and write short essays, journals, and letters. More specifically, students will be able to do the followings:

- 1. Asking directions
- 2. Making appointments, accepting/declining invitations
- 3. Using honorific expressions
- 4. Making apologies, and giving reasons

- 5. Using ordinal numbers
- 6. Describing clothes and colors
- 7. Describing illness and pain
- 8. Making suggestions
- 9. Ordering food and describing tastes

Grading & Evaluation

1. Attendance (Daily assignments and Attending Office hours) 48%

Attendance check will be strictly enforced. As all lectures will be conducted online, students' attendances will be confirmed by viewing video lectures and submission of daily assignments. An assignment will be given every class, and students must submit it by the designated time and date. The assignment will be including simple quizzes. There will be 16 daily assignments provided. 3-point will be deducted for each missed assignment. For late submission, 1-point will be deducted per day. There will be a live class every week. Attending the live class is mandatory.

2. Weekly Assignment 20%

A speaking or writing assignment will be given every week, and students must submit it by the designated time and date. Each weekly assignment worth 5 % of final grade. If late, it will cause 1-point off the original score per day. No extra work will be given to individual for a make-up purpose.

3. Test 32%

There will be 4 speaking tests. Students will have speaking tests on the day they have live classes. Each test worth 8 % of final grade. Students must take examination on the scheduled date. Students are not permitted to take make-up exams, without a valid medical note written by a doctor certifying a student could not physically take the exam. Notes from pharmacies or receipts from hospitals are not acceptable excuses. The make-up exam will be taken within 3 days of the actual test date (any later and the student will receive a zero) and the highest grade for make-up exams is 90% of the total grade.
